No specific agenda points were shared by the Chennai Custom Brokers' Association for discussion during this PTFC meeting. However, the issue of "Registration/Renewal process for EOU" which was discussed in the last PTFC meeting was taken up for further discussion. In the last PTFC meeting, the representative of the Chennai Custom Brokers' Association had informed that earlier registration/renewal process for EOU was dealt by Group 7, which was abolished under new arrangement and all the other works related to Group 7 were transferred to the respective groups & EPCG/EODC but there are no clear guidelines with respect to registration/renewal of EOUs. Further, he had informed that under current practice, trade people have to approach Customs Air Cargo to register the EOU as there is no dedicated section for registration/renewal of the same in Custom-Sea. In this regard, the Assistant Commissioner of Customs(License Registration Cell) had informed that the facility has been initiated in their section post discussion in the last meeting to facilitate the trade. However, the Commissioner opined that the official instructions will be issued post scrutiny of the jurisdiction and other factors in due course.
